

Pacific Women's Watch [NZ]

invites you to their

Half-Day Conference

YOUNG WOMEN of TOMORROW CHANGES and CHALLENGES

Saturday, 21 November 2009, 9.00am - 1.00pm

Key speaker: 'The Marginalisation of Girls' Nura Taefi, human rights lawyer

Speakers and Interactive Workshops on:

Sexualisation of Childhood

People Trafficking - Impact on Women and Girls

Violence against the Girl Child

Clash of Cultures

Somervell Church and Community Centre

497 Remuera Rd (cnr. Greenlane and Remuera Rds), Auckland

$20 includes morning tea and Report of Proceedings. Car parking is available

Inquiries: please e-mail: info@pacificwomenswatch.org.nz or ph: 418 0700

19 November is World Day for Prevention of Child Abuse

20 November is Universal Children's Day, 20th Anniversary of adoption of UN Convention on Rights of the Child

----- Cut here

Registration Form

Please make cheque payable to Pacific Women's Watch (NZ)

Conference: "Young Women of Tomorrow – Changes and Challenges" to honour the World Day for Prevention of Child Abuse and Universal Children's Day

Saturday, 21 November 2009 9.00am – 1.00pm

To ensure your place at the Conference.

RVSP to P.O. Box 99464, Newmarket, Auckland 1149 by 12 November 2009 and include payment of $20.

Name
Address
Phone		Fax
Email			